

Marek Krasula

Director, Arbitration and ADR, North America

International Chamber of Commerce (ICC)

Dispute Resolution Services

Marek Krasula is Director of Arbitration and ADR for North America at the International Chamber of Commerce (SICANA Inc.) in New York.

He advances ICC dispute prevention and resolution services across the United States, Canada, and the Caribbean, working closely with businesses and their legal teams to help them identify effective tools to mitigate risk and manage both domestic and cross-border disputes. Prior to his role as Director, Marek previously led the North American case management team at the Secretariat of the ICC International Court of Arbitration in New York, where, as counsel, he oversaw hundreds of arbitrations under the ICC Rules of Arbitration from a broad range of industries.

He has served as a lecturer in international arbitration at the Université de Montréal law faculty and Deputy Counsel in the ICC Court Secretariat's Paris office handling primarily cases from Eastern Europe. Before joining the ICC, Marek served as executive assistant to Mr. Justin P. J. Trudeau prior to Mr. Trudeau becoming Prime Minister of Canada. Marek also worked in the Senate of Canada and at the International Centre for Human Rights and Democratic Development (Rights & Democracy). Marek is a member of the Quebec Bar (Canada) and holds an LL.M. from Georgetown University. He speaks English, French and Polish.
